Turcica. Revue d'études turques

Author guidelines

Turcica publishes articles in French, English, German and Italian.

Manuscripts shall be submitted:
- by postal mail to: Revue Turcica, Collège de France, Institut d'études turques, arabes et islamiques, 52 rue du Cardinal-Lemoine, F-75231 Paris cedex 05;
- or by email to turcica.revue.etudes.turques@gmail.com.

Manuscripts shall contain an abstract of about 10 lines. The abstract as well as the title shall be provided both in English and French. At the bottom of the first page, the author shall provide contact details and professional affiliation, if any.

The submitted version is the final version. The editorial board assigns each article to at least two peer-reviewers specialised in the article’s field. The editorial board takes its final decision for each article on the basis of the peer-reviewer reports. It communicates its decision to every author.

Text formatting
The submitted article shall contain no tab or style-sheet. When necessary, the text shall be set in italic. Notes shall be put at the bottom of the page and automatically numbered from 1 to n. The basic structure of the submitted article shall be defined by unnumbered headings. Each table or illustration shall be provided in a separate digital file. Illustration and table legends shall include the source, unless the element is published for the first time, the author (photographer, designer etc.), if any, and his/her affiliation.

Bibliographical references
In the footnotes, bibliographical references shall refer to the bibliography provided at the end of the article. They shall contain the author’s last name and a short version of the article/volume’s title.

E.g.:
İnalçık, The Ottoman Empire; Fodor, “Piracy, Ransom Slavery and Trade;” Keyder, “Manufacturing.”

Bibliographic references at the end of the article shall be drafted according to the following:
