CONTENTS

Preface and Acknowledgements vii

Introduction: Stories about Political Stories ix
   Joop W. Koopmans

Contributors xxii

New Perspectives on the Early Modern European Press 1
   Jeremy D. Popkin

Sources and Methods in Information History. The Case of 29
   Medici Florence, the Armada, and the Siege of Ostende
   Brendan Dooley

The Representation of Court Ceremonies in Print. The Development 47 and Distribution of the Funeral Book in Sixteenth-Century Italy
   Minou Schraven

The Politics of dividing the Nation? News Pamphlets as a Vehicle of 61
   Ideology and National Consciousness in the Habsburg Netherlands (1585-1609)
   Vincent van Zuilen

‘Dat de boecken vrij sullen wesen’: Private Profit, Public Utility and 79
   Secrets of State in the Seventeenth-Century Habsburg Netherlands
   Paul Arblasier

News, International Politics and Diplomatic Strategies. Reporting on 97 the Visit of Don Louis William of Portugal (1601-1664) to the Southern Netherlands, May 1625
   Natasja Peeters

The Elizabethan Theatre as Early Modern Television 115
    Henk Gras
vi

The Gazette in Metre; or the Rhiming Newsmonger. The English Broadside Ballad as Intelligencer. A New Narrative

Angela McShane Jones

Dutch Clientelism and News Networks in Public and Private spheres. The Case of Stadholder William Frederick (1613-1664)

Geert H. Janssen

War, Government and the News. The Dutch Republic and the War of the Spanish Succession, 1702-1713

Donald Haks

Supply and Speed of Foreign News to the Netherlands during the Eighteenth Century. A Comparison of Newspapers in Haarlem and Groningen

Joop W. Koopmans

Leiden and Censorship during the 1780s. The Overraam Affair and Elie Luzac on the Freedom of the Press

Rietje van Vliet

Marcel Broersma

Bibliography

Index