TABLE OF CONTENTS

PREFACE ........................................ VII

Didier POLLEFEYT (Leuven)
Introduction: Religious Education and the Opportunities and Challenges of Interreligious Learning ..................... xi

PART I
CONCEPT, PROCESS AND CONTEXT

Hans-Georg ZIEBERTZ (Würzburg)
A Move to Multi? Empirical Research Concerning the Attitudes of Youth Toward Pluralism and Religion’s Claims of Truth . 3
Judith A. BERLING (Berkeley, CA)
The Process of Interreligious Learning ....................... 25
Herman LOMBAERTS (Leuven)
The Impact of the Status of Religion in Contemporary Society upon Interreligious Learning .......................... 55

PART II
MONO-, MULTI-, INTERRELIGIOUS LEARNING

Bünyamin DURAN (Rotterdam)
Cooperation in Interreligious Learning and Teaching Based on Common Abrahamic Principles .......................... 89
Cornelia ROUX (Stellenbosch)
Interreligious Learning: Teachers’ Abilities and Didactic Challenges .......................................................... 103
Carl STERKENS (Nijmegen)
Changes in Commitment and Religiocentrism through Interreligious Learning: Empirical Results from a Social Constructionist Perspective .................................................. 129

PART III
JEWISH, CHRISTIAN, AND MUSLIM PERSPECTIVES

Rochelle L. MILLEN (Springfield, OH)
Particularity and Pluralism: Two Case Studies ................. 165
Table of Contents

Terrence Merrigan (Leuven)

‘Interreligious Learning’ in the Light of the Contemporary Catholic Theology of Interreligious Dialogue .......................... 185

Bülent Şenay (Bursa)

Teaching World Religions: Reflexive ‘Interreligious Learning’, Phenomenological Theology and Methodological Agnosticism 211

PART IV

Moral and Pedagogical Foundations

Roger Burggraeve (Leuven)

Alterity Makes the Difference: Ethical and Metaphysical Conditions for an Authentic Interreligious Dialogue and Learning 231

Danny Wildemeersch (Leuven) & Hugo Vanheeswijk (Brussels)

Reconsidering Dialogue in Intercultural Learning and Education ......................................................... 257

PART V

Identity of Students and Teachers

Dirk Hutsebaut (Leuven)

Religion and Identity ................................................................. 279

Cok Bakker (Utrecht)

Ina Ter Avest (Amsterdam)

List of Contributors ................................................................. 333

Index of Names ................................................................. 335