

CONTENTS

Dedication	v
Acknowledgements	xvii
Introduction	1

CHAPTER ONE

THE FORMALIST-SUBSTANTIVIST DEBATE AND A NETWORK-BASED APPROACH TO ANCIENT ECONOMY

The Formalist-Substantivist Debate	8
i. The Nineteenth Century Primitivist/Modernist Debate	10
ii. Neo-classical Economics as the Basis for a Formal Model of the Economy	11
iii. Application of Neo-classical Economics to the Ancient Economy . .	12
iv. Early Alternatives to Neo-classical Economics	13
v. Karl Polanyi and the Substantivist School of Thought	20
vi. The Critique of Polanyi and the Defense of His Principles in the Near East	22
vii. Moving Beyond the Formalist-substantivist Debate	27
Behavioralist Models	28
Network Theory	31
Complexity Theory	33
Towards a Network-Based Model for the Study of the Economy	34

CHAPTER TWO

PREVIOUS STUDIES OF THE UGARITIC ECONOMY

History of Excavations and the Mission Archéologique Française	39
The Examination of Ras Shamra's Immediate Environs	40
Minet el-Beida	41
Ras Ibn Hani	41
Previous Approaches to Understanding the Ugaritic Economy	42
1. Feudal Models	42
John Gray and Indo-Aryan Feudalists	42
George Boyer and the French Team's Conception of Ugarit's Social Structure	44

Anson Rainey and Social Stratification	45
Gerald Miller and Juridical Texts	48
2. Marxist Models	49
Michael Heltzer and the Royal Service System	52
Mario Liverani and the Italian School	56
José-Ángel Zamora and the Expanding Palace Sector	58
Clayton Libolt and the Royal Land Grants	58
Ignazio Márquez Rowe and Ugaritic Tribute	59
3. Entrepreneurial Models	60
Hellenosemitica and the Brandeis Entrepreneurial Approach	60
i. Michael Astour	61
ii. Robert Stieglitz	62
iii. Brian Widbin	62
Christopher Monroe and the Merchants of the Late Bronze Age	63
Marion Feldman and Late Bronze Age International Koiné	64
4. Managerial and Administrative Approaches to the Economy	65
William Whitt and Archival Studies	68
José-Ángel Zamora and Ugaritic Vineyards	70
5. Patrimonial Models	71
The French Team's Recognition of Large Non-Royal Houses	75
Juan Pablo Vita and Alternative Administrative Centers	77
Stager, Schloen and the University of Chicago Neo-Weberians	78
Conclusions	85

CHAPTER THREE

THE LANGUAGE OF THE UGARITIC ECONOMY

Terminology of Social Designations	89
bnš	89
bnš mlk	90
'bd	94
b'l	95
n'r	97
adrt	98
hbt, hpt	99
gZR	100
Terminology of Occupational Designations	100
skn	101
mryn	102
bdl	105
mkr	107

mākisu	108
md	109
mr^c	111
šr	113
alḥn	114
ysḥ	115
nḡr	116
s/šḡr	117
ḥrd	117
ḥsnm	118
ḥbt_{nm}	119
trmn	119
mḥs	120
Cultic Officials	121
Land-holding and Obligations	122
ilku/pilku	123
unt	127
ubdy, updt, ubdit	128
gt	130
argmn	130
ntb(t)	132
Conclusions	132

CHAPTER FOUR

THE FORM AND FUNCTION OF UGARITIC ECONOMIC TEXTS

Records from Private Archives	137
Records of People	137
Personal Names	138
With Personal Names Alone	138
With Reference to Other Individuals	140
With Reference to Geographic Locations	142
With Numbers	144
With Chattel, Commodities, and Precious Metals	145
Occupational Categories	149
With Personal Names	150
With Geographic Names	153
Lists With Numbers	154
Occupational Groups as Collectives	157
Census Lists	159

Records of Places	160
Simple Lists	160
Lists With Unexplained Numbers	160
Information About Fields	161
Information About the Circulation of Goods	161
Information About Agricultural Equipment	162
Records of Commodities	163
Cereals	164
Wine	165
Olives	166
Oil	166
Precious Metals	166
Salt	168
Textiles	168
Wood	169
Records of Equipment	169
Agricultural Equipment	170
Transportation Equipment	172
Military Equipment	173
Records of Land	174
Field Transfers	174
ubdy Fields	176
unt Records	177
Conclusions	177

CHAPTER FIVE

ECONOMIC MODALITIES AT UGARIT:
THE EVIDENCE FROM THE TABLETS

Who engaged in economic action (i. e., was capable or compelled to)? . . .	182
The Individual	183
The Geographic Region	184
Foreigners at Ugarit	185
The Occupational Category	186
Cultic Officials and the Temples	190
What kinds of economic actions were engaged in?	191
Economic Actions Involving Real Estate	191
Economic Actions Involving Obligations Owed to Royal Authority . .	194
Economic Actions Involving Cultic Obligations	198
Economic Activities Involving Debt and Credit	199
Economic Activities Involving Redistribution	201

Economic Activities Involving Trade or Sales	203
Economic Actions Involving Requests	207
What kinds of goods and labor were controlled or disposed of, and by whom? .	207
Silver	208
Other Precious Metals	208
Comestibles	209
Textiles	210
Vehicles	211
Military Equipment	212
Agricultural Equipment	212
Private Property	213
Merchant Activity	214
General Labor	214
Types of Labor	214
Where does the power for control of goods and labor reside? On what grounds is this power based?	215
The Palace	215
Individuals Within the Palace Administration	216
Other Archives	216
What institutions, structures, and organizations existed to facilitate the circulation of goods?	217
Transportation	218
Organizations for Which There is No Evidence	218
Is there evidence at both a production and consumption level?	219
Conclusions	220

CHAPTER SIX

THE ARCHIVAL CONTEXT OF THE TABLETS:
THE ELITE ARCHITECTURAL COMPLEXES AT UGARIT

1. Royal Palace Archives: Archaeological Context	223
Royal Palace Archives: Western Archives	226
The Nature of the Western Archive	227
Royal Palace Archives: Central Archives	229
The Nature of the Central Archive	231
Royal Palace Archives: Southwestern Archive	233
The Nature of the Southwestern Archive	234
Royal Palace Archives: Southern Archive	235
The so-called 'Oven'	236
The Composition of the Southern Archive	238

Royal Palace Archives: Eastern Archives	239
The Nature of the Eastern Archive	241
Royal Palace Archives: Room 73 (Bureau annexe)	243
The Nature of the Archive	243
Royal Palace Archives: Room 90	244
Conclusions About the Palace	244
2. Non-Palatial Archives: Archaeological Contexts	246
The Residential Quarter	246
The House of Rap'anu	247
The House of the Armourer	249
House of the Scholar (Maison du lettré)	249
House of Rashapabu	250
Maison au portique	251
Bâtiment au vase de pierre	252
Maison aux albâtres	253
House of Yabninu (Southern Palace)	254
Northern Palace and Palace-Associated Structures to the North	256
Northern Palace	256
House of the Military Governor	256
Other Structures	257
House of Urtenu	257
House of Agapšarri	259
Tablet House (MT)	259
Conclusions	260
3. Temples and the Houses of Cultic Personnel	261
Urban Temples at Ugarit	261
Library of the High Priest	262
House of the Hurrian Priest (PH)	263
Conclusions Regarding Cultic Areas	263
4. Conclusions	264

CHAPTER SEVEN

THE MATERIAL REMAINS OF THE UGARITIC ECONOMY

1. Environment	266
The Geography of the Syrian Coast	266
Water	267
Natural Resources	269
Conclusions	270
2. Economic Infrastructure	271
Roads	271

Ports	272
Zoning	273
The Domestic Sections of Ugarit	273
Centre de la ville	274
Tranchée sud	275
Ville basse	277
Conclusions About Zoning at Ugarit	277
3. Domestic Structures and Household Assemblages	277
The Layout of Domestic Structures	278
The Household Tomb	281
Household Material Culture Assemblages	283
Water and Waste Management	284
Stone Tools in the House	285
Other Household Artifacts	286
Function of Domestic Space	287
Issues of Private Ownership	289
The Relationship to “Elite Households”	290
4. Industrial Evidence	290
The Urban Farmer	291
Urban Olive Oil Production	291
Household Construction	292
Stone Industry	293
Seasonal Limitations on Production and the Organization of Production	294
Conclusions About Industrial Production	296
5. Prestige Goods	297
Cylinder Seals	299
Military Equipment	299
Stone Vessels	301
Mycenaean Pottery	302
Tablets	305
6. Conclusions	305

CHAPTER EIGHT

ECONOMICS BEYOND THE CITY

1. Within the Kingdom of Ugarit	311
The Administration of the Periphery	311
Correspondence	319
Transactions Involving the Palace	319
Transactions Between Private Citizens	320
Conclusions	322

2.	Beyond the Kingdom of Ugarit	322
a)	Modes of Transport	322
	Nautical	323
	Overland	324
b)	Major International Relationships	324
	Hatti	325
	Egypt	327
	Cyprus	329
	Ura	331
	Other Major City-States	332
c)	Elite Economic Actors Within Ugarit	333
	The Queen	333
	Yabninu	333
	Urtenu	335
3.	Conclusions	336

CHAPTER NINE

CONCLUSIONS: A NETWORK-BASED MODEL OF ECONOMIC MODALITIES

1.	Integrating Texts and Material Culture	339
2.	A Re-evaluation of Models of Near Eastern Economy	339
	Temple Economy	340
	Crypto-Feudal Models of Society	341
	Two-sector Models	343
	The Patrimonial Household Model (PHM)	345
	Semi-Institutional House Models	349
3.	A Network-Based Model of Economic Modalities	350
4.	A Network-Based Model of Economic Modalities Applied to Ugarit . .	352
	A. Interactions Involving the Royal Palace Administration	352
	a) Non-Royal Elite Residents of Ugarit and Royal Administration .	352
	b) Non-Elite Residents of Ugarit and Royal Palace Administration.	355
	c) The Peripheral Kingdom of Ugarit and the Royal Palace Administration	356
	B. The King of Ugarit	357
	a) Non-Royal Elites and the King	357
	b) Non-Elite Residents of Ugarit and the King	358
	C. Non-Royal Elites at Ugarit	358
	1. Non-Royal Elites and Other Non-Royal Elites	358
	2. Non-Royal Elites and Non-Elites at Ugarit	360

D. Non-Elite Residents of Ugarit	361
E. Ugarit's International Relationships	362
F. Conclusions and Summary	363
5. The Formalist-Substantivist Debate	364
6. Substantive Economic Authority at Ugarit	369
Power Through Debt	370
Power Through Practice	372
Power Through Hegemony	372
Power Through a Monopoly of Force	373
7. Loci of Palatial Economic Authority at Ugarit	374
Production at Ugarit	374
The Institution of the gt	376
Class and Status at Ugarit	378
The Question of Guilds	378
8. Conclusions and Implications for the Study of Non-Industrial Economic Activity	380
9. Avenues for Further Research	381
 Bibliography	 382
Subject Index	420
Index of Modern Authors	427
Index of Ancient Terms	430
Index of Ancient Texts	432