CONTENTS

Preface and Acknowledgements vii

Europa: Charming Zeus ... and Numerous Others! The appeal of EU Accession ix
Herman W. Hoen and Torsten J. Selck

Contributors xxiii

Issues in the Political Economy of European Union Enlargement 1
Keith Dowding

Jan van der Harst

Path Dependency and the Role of the Commission in the European Enlargement Process 27
Mariëlla Smids

The Political Economy of ECB Reforms 61
Heiko Fritz

EU Structural Funds and Enlargement 75
David Bailey and Lisa de Propris

Which Exchange Rate Regime prepares best for Accession? 95
Iika Korhonen

Assigning Policy Competencies to different Levels of EU Governance 105
Joachim Ahrens and Herman W. Hoen

The Effects of Enlargement on European Union decision-making Flexibility 129
Torsten J. Selck and Karolien de Bruin

Legislation in an ever-widening European Union: Gridlock, Chaos, and Rent Seeking? 147
Gerald Schneider, Michael Dobbins and Dietrich Drüner
Constitutional Change in the Wake of Enlargement: Member State Interests and the Extension of the Codecision Procedure

Bernard Steunenberg and Antoaneta Dimitrova

Micro- versus Macro-Level in EU Research: estimating the Effects of the May 2004 Enlargement on Council Bargaining Outcomes

Torsten J. Selck, Sylvia Simonova and Sanneke Kuipers

Bibliography

187

Index

203