CONTENTS

Introduction
Successful ageing and spirituality 1
Johan Bouwer

Conceptualisation
The early concept of successful ageing in gerontology 15
Kees Knipscheer
The concept of spirituality 29
Hein Blommestijn

Gerontological perspectives
Ageing as increasing vulnerability and complexity – Towards a philosophy of life course 39
Jan Baars
Gerotranscendence: Successful contemplation in later life? – An empirical exploration among older adults in the Netherlands 53
Arjan Braam, Dorly Deeg, Theo van Tilburg, Aartjan Beekman & Willem van Tilburg

Psychological perspectives
Personal meaning and successful ageing – A psychogerontological perspective 73
Gerben Westerhof
Ways to wisdom: Life span, successful ageing and spirituality – An analysis based on 20 interviews 91
Frits Mertens

Sociological perspectives
Ageing, health care and the spiritual imperative – A view from Scotland 109
Harriet Mowat
VI

CONTENTS

A peer-led senior health education programme – An effect and process evaluation 121
Toon Voorham & Paul Kocken

Anthropological perspectives
Shifting meanings of successful ageing – Anthropological reflections 137
Sjaak van der Geest, Margaret von Faber & Euan Sadler
Misery, medicine and morality – Successful ageing and spirituality in South Africa 151
Els van Dongen (†)

Moral perspectives
Good ageing – A comprehensive approach 171
Frits de Lange
Frailty and care 191
Frans Vosman & Andries Baart

Theological perspectives
Towards a practical theological perspective on (successful) ageing 209
Evert Jonker
Forgetting whose we are – Theological reflections on successful ageing, personhood and dementia 237
John Swinton

Bibliography 263

List of contributors 281