TABLE OF CONTENTS

1. INTRODUCTION
   - Wessel Stoker and W.L. van der Merwe ................. 1

2. EXPOSITION OF TYPOLGY
   - Wessel Stoker
     - Culture and transcendence: a typology ................. 5

3. EXAMPLES OF THE FOUR TYPES OF TRANSCENDENCE
   - a) Immanent transcendence
     - Werner Schüßler
       - God as ‘depth of being’: on the relation between immanence and transcendence in the thinking of Paul Tillich ......... 31
     - Robert Vosloo
       - Bonhoeffer, transcendence and the ‘turn to religion’ ...... 45
   - b) Radical transcendence
     - Cornelis van der Kooi
       - Struck by an arrow from beyond an impassible river: transcendence in Karl Barth’s ‘The Epistle to the Romans’ . 65
     - André Cloots
       - Marcel Gauchet on the radicalization of transcendence and the rise of modern immanence ....................... 77
   - c) Radical immanence
     - Kristien Justaert
       - Gilles Deleuze and the transcendence of the immanent .... 93
     - Amanda du Preez
       - Thrilling! Transcendence in contemporary cultures of the extreme ............................................... 105
   - d) Transcendence as alterity
     - Annemie Halsema
       - Luce Irigaray’s transcendence as alterity ..................... 121
     - Wytse Versteeg
       - Trauma as transcendence: beyond the limits of experience? 137
4. DISCUSSION OF TYPOLOGY OF TRANSCENDENCE
   Merold Westphal
   Dimensions of divine transcendence: from abstract to concrete 151
   Adrienne Dengerink Chaplin
   Transcendence re-mixed: on the complex role of religion in contemporary art 163
   Paul van Tongeren
   Nihilism and transcendence 179
   Wessel Stoker
   Short response to Westphal, Dengerink Chaplin and Van Tongeren 191

5. OTHER APPROACHES
   Arnold Burms
   Transcendence and chaos 199
   André van der Braak
   Nishitani’s rethinking of transcendence as trans-descendence 207

6. CONCLUDING ARTICLE
   W.L. van der Merwe
   Conclusion: tracing transcendence 221

7. PERSONALIA 235