Contents

Acknowledgements ........................................................ IX

Colby Dickinson, Introduction ........................................... 1

Tradition and Method in Theology

Mark Chapman
Temporal and Spatial Catholicism: Tensions in Historicism in the Oxford Movement .................................................. 17

Michael G. Lawler & Todd A. Salzman
The Normativity of History that Shapes Tradition: Human Experience, Sensus Fidei, and Sociology .............................. 27

Terence Bateman
Reinterpreting the Truth and Identity of the Christian Tradition: Francis Schüssler Fiorenza and Lieven Boeve in Dialogue .... 43

Ward De Pril
History and Tradition in Yves Congar’s La Tradition et les traditions ........................................................................ 59

Michael Quisinsky
Tradition and Normativity of History within an ‘Economy of Salvation’ ........................................................................ 73

Anthony J. Godzieba
Ut Musica Christianitas: Christian Tradition as a History of Performances ................................................................. 91

Idahosa Amadasu
Faith and History: The Context of Joseph Ratzinger’s Study of Bonaventure ............................................................... 101
Tradition and the Postmodern Condition

Philip J. Rossi
Human Contingency, Divine Freedom, and the Normative Shape of Saving History ........................................ 117

Marie L. Baird
 Tradition and the Savagery of History ................................. 131

Delfò Cortina Canceran
The Gaping Split of the Subject in Politics and Tradition ...... 145

Phyllis H. Kaminski
Desire and Contemplative Silence: A Feminist Exploration of Transformation Within and Beyond Tradition ................ 163

Rik Van Nieuwenhove
The Tradition of Medieval Theology as a Source for Doing Theology in Post-modern Times: Gratuity and Transcendence in Medieval Theology .......................................................... 173

Jessica M. Murdoch
Is Tradition Inspired? .......................................................... 185

Tradition and Church

H. Ashley Hall
The Lutheran Reformation and the Normativity of History .... 201

Elochukwu E. Uzukwu
Traditioning and the Emerging Shape of a Local Church: A Nigerian Example ............................................... 215

Stephen Annan
‘Make a Complete Break with the Past’? Overcoming the Ambivalence of African Pentecostal Ecclesiology towards Tradition .................. 231

Edward Mushi
The Idea of Ecclesiae renovatio in the Second Vatican Council: A Reflection on Lumen Gentium and Unitatis Redintegratio .... 247
CONTENTS

Tradition and Orthodox Theology

Declan Marmion
Trinity and Tradition: Re-visitng the Trinitarian Tradition East and West .................................................. 267

Ivana Noble
History Tied Down by the Normativity of Tradition? Inversion of Perspective in Orthodox Theology: Challenges and Problems . . . 283

Pantelis Kalaitzidis
The Eschatological Understanding of Tradition in Contemporary Orthodox Theology and Its Relevance for Today’s Issues ........ 297

Tradition and the Challenge of Context

Marinus C. Iwuchukwu

Jacques Haers
Dear and Costly Traditions in the Face of Contemporary Planet-Wide Challenges ................................................. 331

Hans Debel
Conservation through Innovation: The Dynamic Scriptural Tradition of the Pentateuch within Judaism of the Second Temple Period ............................................................ 345

Justice Osei-Fosu
Hate Speech and Curses: (Re)Distilling a Theology of Curses in the Light of the ‘Normativity of the Future’. ..................... 355

Notes on Contributors ................................................................. 371