CONTENTS

Preface and Acknowledgements vii

Towards a Comparative History of Nobility in Twentieth-Century Europe. An Introduction
  Yme Kuiper 1

Distinctive Student Peregrinations Abroad. The Social Conversion of the Nobility in Modern Hungary
  Viktor Karady 27

Titled Outsiders. Jewish Nobility in the Nineteenth and Early Twentieth Centuries
  Huibert Schijf 53

The Transformation of the Swedish Aristocracy
  Göran Norrby 73

The Revival of Dutch Nobility around 1900
  Nikolaj Bijleveld 97

Memory, Residence and Profession. Aspects of the Process of Reconversion of a Dutch Noble Family in the Twentieth Century
  Yme Kuiper 117

The Noble Heritage in Finland. Manor Houses and The House of Nobility as Symbols of Aristocratic Self-Representation
  Anna-Maria Åström 149

Communities of Memory and Attitude. The Self-Perception of the East Elbian Nobility in West Germany, 1945/49-c.1975
  Michael Seelig 169

The Persistence of the Aristocratic Model. Strategies of Adaptation of the Parisian Beau Monde, 1900-1939
  Alice Bravard 187
CONTENTS

Between Consent and Resistance. The Italian Nobility and the Fascist Regime

Maria Malatesta 205

Noble Memories in a ‘Denobled’ Society. The Albertines’ Return to Saxony in 1989

Silke Marburg 229

The Illusion of Rupture. Polish Nobility in the Socialist State

Longina Jakubowska 241

The Cultural Identity of the Belgian Nobility around 2000. Linguistic Capital and Migration as Aspects of Reconversion

Paul Janssens 261

Nobles among the Austrian Economic Elite in the Early Twenty-First Century

Philipp Korom and Jaap Dronkers 281

Reconversions and Downward Social Mobility among Nobilities in the Twentieth and Twenty-First Centuries

Monique de Saint Martin 305

Bibliography 323

Index 343

Contributors 357