Contents

1. Nymph and Pathosformel .................. 1
2. The nymph as paradigm .................. 23
3. “But such high-flown movements are not for me” ........ 31
4. The butterfly as a symbolic archetype .......... 41
5. From nymph to butterfly and back again. Aby Warburg’s hermeneutical circle as lepidopterology ........ 51
6. La science sans nom meets les sciences diagonales .......... 65
7. Butterflies, Metabild and the scopic paradigm .......... 77
8. Postscript .................... 89

Illustrations .................... 95
Bibliography .................... 97
Index nominum .................. 103
Colophon .................... 105