Table of Contents

Acknowledgments ................................................................. vii

Introduction ............................................................................. 1

Chapter 1
Taking Life into Consideration
Challenges for Religious Education in the European
School Context............................................................................. 7

Chapter 2
Narthical Religious Learning
Redefining Religious Education in Terms of Pilgrimage............ 25

Chapter 3
Growing in Shared Humanity
Understanding Religious Education in the Light of Special Needs Education........................................................... 43

Chapter 4
Spiritual Learning Communities
Historical, Systematic and Practical Observations.................. 63

Chapter 5
How Much and Which Theology in Religious Education?
The Intimate Place of Theology in the Public Space of the School................................................................................ 81

Chapter 6
Opening, Reading and Writing the Sacred Scriptures
in the Classroom
Exploring Biblical Hermeneutics and Didactics Inclusively...... 99
Table of Contents

Chapter 7
Generating Hope
The Religious Education Teacher as a Guide in Fostering Identity, Celebrating Diversity and Building Community ........ 115

Conclusion ........................................................................................................ 129

Bibliography ........................................................................................................ 131

Index of Names .................................................................................................... 145