TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction

Ben HARING

Part I NON-TEXTUAL MARKS, PERSONAL AND CULTURAL

‘Writing and Reading Ourselves Out of Trouble’: Evolutionary Insights on Non-linguistic Marking Systems

Joám EVANS PIM

Les signes lapidaires emblématiques ou monogrammatiques : un choix, deux logiques (Belgique, Espagne, France, XIIe-XVIIIe)

J.-L. van BELLE

Signs Seen from Above

Dirk J. DE VRIES

Numbers Do Not Count: Bias, Consistency and Specificity of ‘Numbered Signs’

Alex de VOOGT

Part II
MARKS AND GRAFFITI IN ANCIENT EGYPT

Products of the Physical Engagement with Sacred Space: the New Kingdom Non-textual Tomb-Graffiti at Saqqara

Nico STARING

Quarry Marks in Gebel el Silsila: Signifiers of Men and Gods Alike?

Maria NILSSON

Part III
MARKS, FAMILY AND ORGANISATION AT DEIR EL-MEDINA

Integrating Hieratic and Marks Data for the Prosopography of Deir el-Medina Workmen in the Early to Mid 20th Dynasty

Mark COLLIER
Duty Rosters and Delivery Records Composed with Marks and their Relation to the Written Administration of Deir el-Medina

Daniel M. SOLIMAN

Methods of Identification among the Deir el-Medina Workmen and their Service Personnel. The Use of Names, Titles, Patronyms and Identity Marks in Administrative Texts

Kathrin GABLER